Kizilagac

Kizilagac is located 5 km's to the city of Bodrum, and is situated in the east part of the peninsula where the area is covered with green forest with pine and olive trees. There is excellent sea view from the hills, restaurants with large gardens, and the village. The road continues to many small and cute villages scattered in the forest. Here the countryside retains all its rustic charm and the forested mountains are perfect for long treks in the shade of tall trees. Jeep safaris are organized also to explore the region. Other activities may be added the exploration of the ancient Lelegian and Carian sites, as vestiges of the cities of Syangela and Theangela lie in this region.
